

Privacy Notice (How we use pupil information)

Wheatfields Primary school is classed as a 'Data Controller' under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (GDPR). The school is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office and follows the principles of the GDPR.

We take the privacy of our pupils seriously and this notice outlines what sort of personal data we collect, why we do this, how long we store it and who we share it with. Access to personal data is only available to those who need it for a specific purpose.

1. Keep us up to date

It's important that you let us know if there are any changes to your situation or personal details. This is so that we can manage and protect you, your data and communicate with you safely and quickly.

Please let us know straight away if any of these change:

• Your name • Address • Phone number (including mobile) • Email address

We will contact you (and your emergency contacts) using the most recent address, email or phone number you or your parental contact has given us. If you don't tell us promptly about a change in your details, you may not receive information that could be important – or it could fall into the wrong hands. Where you have provided an e-mail address we will use this for important messages that relate to you.

2. The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number, address, family details and contact information)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, gender, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information (including national curriculum results)
- Relevant medical information
- Special Educational Needs information
- Behavioural/Exclusions information
- Information to enable educational trips
- Images of pupils through photographs (with parental consent)
- Personal information about a pupil's parents and/or relatives (such as name, contact details, relationship to child)

3. Why we collect and use this information

We use the data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care/safeguarding of students
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to enable the use of parent payment systems
- to enable the use of our finance and education systems
- to share data for statutory inspections and audit purposes
- for detection/prevention of crime (CCTV footage)
- to improve the teaching and learning process at school

Wheatfields Primary School may make use of limited personal data relating to pupil, parents/guardians for fundraising, marketing and promotional purposes and to maintain relationships with pupils of the school.

4. The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under:

- Education Act 1996 – this information can be found in the guide documents on the following website <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>
- The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations
- The School Standards and Framework Act 1998
- The School Admissions Regulations 2012
- Children and Families Act 2014
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014
- Data Protection Act (1998) (until 25 May 2018)
- General Data Protection Regulation (from 25 May 2018)
 - o Article 6(1)(a) – consent
 - o Article 6(1)(c) – legal obligation
 - o Article 6(1)(e) - public task
 - o Article 9(2)(a) – explicit consent
 - o Article 9(2)(g) – substantial public interest

The DfE process census data under the various Education Acts – further information can be found on their website: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

Our disclosure of personal data is lawful for the following reasons:

- Wheatfields Primary School is under a legal obligation to disclose the information or disclosing the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to look after our pupils and protect them from harm.
- It is necessary for us to disclose information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling. This is a function which is in the public interest.
- We have a legitimate interest in disclosing information because it is necessary in order to provide our pupils with education and pastoral care and connected purposes as outlined above.

- We will not usually need consent to disclose your information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would need consent then this will be sought before a disclosure is made.

5. Collecting Pupil Information

Whilst the majority of pupil information provided to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform parents and pupils whether they are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if they have a choice in this. We may also receive information from previous schools, the local authority and the Department of Education (DfE).

6. Storing pupil data

Personal data will be kept secure whilst it is being stored, used and when it is being shared with others. We hold pupil data until the pupil reaches the age of 25 or until they leave the school and their records are transferred. After this time the paper records are securely shredded and the electronic files are deleted. CCTV footage is overwritten on a rolling approximately 7 week schedule unless exported for evidential purposes in line with our ICO registered purposes (detection and prevention of crime).

7. Who we share pupil information with

We treat all information we hold about you (Pupils, Parents and other emergency contacts) private and confidential to our organisation. We will not reveal any personal details concerning you to anyone not connected with Wheatfields Primary School or listed below unless:

- You ask use to provide information, or we have your consent to do so
- We are required or permitted to do so by law
- It is required by law enforcement
- There is a duty to the public to reveal the information, e.g: regulatory bodies, tax authorities, the department for education or education funding agency.

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil attends after leaving us
- our local authorities:
 - o Cambridgeshire County Council
<https://www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/data-protection-and-foi/information-and-data-sharing>
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- Cambridge Primary Trust Care
- Members of staff

We share specific pupil information, as necessary, with:

- School Nurse
- CAMHS (Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service)
- Governors/trustees
- Support professional such as counsellors
- Travel companies for school trips
- Suppliers including those for photography services, cashless catering systems, management information systems and parent finance systems

We will also provide information about pupils to parents or main carers. Where appropriate, we will listen to pupil views first. We will also take family circumstances into account, where a Court has decided what information a parent/carers is allowed to have.

When you give us information about another person, you need to ensure you have permission from them to provide us with their information.

8. Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

9. Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

10. The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The Department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and

- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

11. Requesting access to your personal data

Information about you will be held by us in both paper form and on our IT systems and will be kept in line with our retention procedures.

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold.

To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact the Data Protection Officer at Wheatfields Primary School, by email office@wheatfields.cambs.sch.uk or write to Data Protection Officer, Wheatfields Primary School, St Ives, CAMBS, PE27 3WF.

We will need to see proof of identity to ensure we are not releasing data to the wrong person. There may be a small charge for this service – if so, we will make this clear.

You also have the right to:

- ask us to correct any information we have about you if you think it is wrong
- ask us to erase information about you (although we may have good reasons why we cannot do this)
- ask us to limit what we are doing with your information
- object to what we are doing with your information
- ask us to transfer your information to another organisation in a format that makes it easy for them to use

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
