

| Our text is Stone Age Boy As a writer I will: Write character descriptions Write accounts from the view of different characters Write a report about the Stone Age | As a scientist I will: Names types and functions of teeth Understand that animals have different types of teeth depending on their diet Learn how to look after teeth and prevent tooth decay | As a mathematician I will study: Addition and subtraction (mental and written methods) Number and place value Problem solving and reasoning Multiplication and division |
|--|--|--|
| In PSHE our topic will be Beginnings and belonging In RE we will be learning about How the World Began | Year 3 Autumn 1 Stone Age Boy | As a computer user we will: Use Active Learn and Mathletics resources confidently As a musician we will: Be learning how to play the recorder. We will be learning about 'The Carnival of the Animals' by Saint-Saëns and will discover how to compose music which describes animals. |
| As an artist we will study Cave paintings and mark making | As an historian I will Study life in the Stone Age Find out about how Stone Age people built houses, hunted and lived | As a Sports person we will do Team building skills Hockey – passing and dribbling |